LIFE INSURANCE.

THE KNICKERBOCKER

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF NEW YORK.

Southern Branch, SAVANNAH, Ga.,

A. WILBUR, Manager.
R. D. ARNOLD, Consulting Physician.

THE ONLY BRANCH OFFICE OF LIFE INSURANCE IN THIS SECTION WHERE POLICIES ARE ISSUED AND LOSSES PAID.

ASSETS NEARLY

ANNUAL INCOME NEARLY

$3,000,000.

Annual Dividends nearly 50 per cent.

$73,500 LOSSES PAID BY THE SOUTHERN BRANCH IN TWO YEARS.

THE KNICKERBOCKER IS AN OLD, RELIable Company, and offers as great inducements to insurers as any solvent Company can. Issues Policies on every desirable plan. Loans one-third of Premium to Policy-Holder.

All Policies non-forfeitable, as the insured can at any time, on demand, get its surrender value.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON RESIDENCE OR TRAVEL.

NO EXTRA CHARGE for OFFICERS of the ARMY or NAVY, Officers of first-class Steam or Sail Vessels, or Railroad Conductors, &c.

The "KNICKERBOCKER" is ONE of the TWO Northern Companies whose Policies in the South were kept intact during the entire Rebellion, whose Dividends were accredited to Policy Holders as though Premiums were paid.

And is THE Company that paid all losses after the war, that occurred during the war, thus proving its integrity, the honorable method of conducting its business, and its indisputable solvency.

The KNICKERBOCKER still pays all losses, never disputes a just claim, and is as liberal and SAFE as any Company in America.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ALL CASH PLAN OF THE

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

W. H. CROW, General Agent for North Carolina and Virginia, South of the James.

Accumulated Capital, over	$10,000,00
Annual Income,	6,000,000
Surplus, above Liabilities,	2,000,000

THE ÆTNA

Has $136 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

ALL POLICIES STRICTLY NON-FORFEITING.

CASH RATES!
CASH POLICIES!
CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium, or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course its total cost, and the policies will become self-sustaining much sooner than in other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, give a larger paid-up-policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the Ætna:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution. Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, APRIL 19, 1869.

THE PROTEST OF THE BAR.

We publish, to day, a paper which will forever speak for itself, and, so long as a pure judiciary is appreciated or revered, will deserve the gratitude of a free, intelligent and moral people. It is a solemn protest, by nearly all the prominent members of the bar of the State, against the late universally deprecated and deplored example exhibited by the Judges of the Supreme Court, who during the last fall, in a body, wildly leapt into the sea of political and partisan strife, while the excited flood was sweeping over the land, and swam with the current, shouting from the tops of its angry waves.

The paper is intended as a rebuke of that most pernicious example, which never before had been witnessed by the citizens of North Carolina; an example which amazed them by its novelty, no less than it alarmed them by the apprehended horrors of an approaching political Judiciary.

The composition of the protest is calm and expostulatory. It expresses strongly that elevated sense of judicial purity, which had been inspired into the bar by the examples of a Henderson, a Hall, a Taylor, a Daniel, a Nash, a Gaston and a Ruffin.—These illustrious models were the true and general representatives of the bench of the State,—a State which had ever experienced the truth that the pure and elevated character of its judiciary was the great moral lamp of its citizens; and far more efficient to inspire reverence for the law, and obedience to its commands, than can ever be that Judiciary which, depraved in its moral tone, seeks and finds its seat amid the shows and triumphs of political power. It may not be amiss in this age of boasted moral progress and reforming innovations, in which we are told that the watchword of the day is "Old things have passed away, and all things have become new," to invite the attention of our judges and people to the once heeded, but now neglected, lessons of the departed and honored sages of our country, which unfold the causes that pollute the fountains of justice; to entreat them once more to read a few pages of the Federalist; again to consult the commentaries of the learned Kent; and once more to study the collected wisdom of the still more learned and distinguished Story, as he portrays the first sappings of the foundations of justice, and then their speedy decay into utter corruption. And, if our readers will not think we are jesting, we would recommend the admirers of this age of progress to perfection in the judicial department of government, to read the entertaining but heart saddening account of the political Judges of New York, lately so graphically given under the title of the "Erie Railroad Row."

Whatever may be the fortune of this well-timed, and well-intended rebuke in checking the progress of our judiciary towards the corruptions which have ever tainted a political bench, the present bar of this State are entitled ever to bear in their bosoms the proud consolation, that the first step in its descent to corruption was reproved by them in the honest spirit of men who had lived to see, to love and venerate the judicial honor and purity of the State, and had, with warning, frowned on the first invasion of the citadel of undefiled justice.

The intentional delay in the publication of this paper truly manifests the spirit which gave it birth, and should make it but the more impressive and heeded.

The excitement which preceded and followed the late national elections, have but recently subsided; the public authorities are now all installed; there is no vacant seat on the bench of the State; no aspirations of our people for vacant offices; no fear of political defeats. So fitting a time for the publication of the paper has never before offered itself to the citizens of the State. It comes before the people with no threats of vengeance for the past, and seeks only to inspire virtuous conduct in the future. Its entire object is to impress the hearts of the Judges and the people. If it can do no good now, it never can. If it can do no good in arresting the late pernicious example of the Judges, then the noble and once pure Commonwealth, is lost amid the corruptions of the times, and no hope is left that either a love of virtue or a sense of shame can raise her from the depths of her debasement.

Should this sad lot be the destiny of our State, the bar, though unsuccessful in its noble efforts, may well claim the bitter and consoling reflection of being, still, that bar, which, in a by-gone age, would have kept the worthy compeers of its Davies, its Henderson's, its Stanly's, its Iredell's and its Badgers.

When at Caswell Court we met with Mr. D. T. Williams, one of the best known merchants in Richmond, Virginia. We commend him to the tobacco growers of Rockingham, Caswell, Person, Granville and Warren. Our young friend Roulhac is with him.

We see that Charles N. Webb has displaced Charles Fitz Patrick, as Postmaster at Halifax. Charlie N. likes office, and has become a supporter of Grant as a consequence. Nuff ced.

Butler has had a female department clerk discharged because she alluded, in a horse car, to the Doctor's supposed fondness for tea spoons of his fellow men.

PERSON COURT.

On last week Person Court was held.—We attended and had the pleasure of meeting with many old and valued friends. We spoke at length to the people who manifested a desire to hear us. We gave them some account of the doings and proceedings of the Legislature, the debt and taxes which they had imposed. We learned from Jesse Chambers, the difference between a Person and an Orange man. Judge Reade, when he comes down to Court, can tell Chief Justice Pearson the difference, and then he can write another letter, for if he don't do something Rodman will beat him in the race they are running for the Supreme Court of the United States.

The State docket, to the credit of the county, was the smallest that we had seen or heard of in the State.

The most important subject to the people of Person, as well as to the people of the State, seemed greatly neglected, to wit: the one relating to the most efficient manures.—From Hillsboro' to Roxboro' we did not see one single cart load of compost or manure hauled out for the spring crop. We do not look for more prosperity or money in the country until we see more attention paid to the making of manure.

The spirit of fruit growing seems to have taken a vigorous hold on the people of Person as well as other portions of the State, which we have recently visited. We think more fruit trees have been planted in North Carolina the last four years, than were planted in the preceding twenty. Our soil and our people will be benefitted when they exchange the cultivation of tobacco for fruit, clover and hay.

We said but little of Judge Tourgee to the people, notwithstanding the taunt of the Standard, that it was because the Judge was present that we forbore to speak of him at Caswell. We did however tell the freedmen listening to us, that Judge Tourgee said in a speech made in Philadelphia, that a Quaker told him that he had seen 15 negroes drawn up out of one mill pond, who had been murdered and put there by the wicked rebels. We told the negroes we would give any one of them a hundred dollars if he would go the Judge and get the name of the Quaker and the mill pond. Some African may have called on the Judge for the name of the Quaker and the pond, but he never called on us for the money. We thought the bar in a better humor with the Judge than they seemed to be at Caswell.

We suppose it grew out of the fact that at Caswell, the Judge stopped with Senator Stephens, or Chicken Stephens, as the Milton Chronicle calls him. Now we insist, that in this matter, the bar at Caswell were in error for refusing to call on the Judge whose inclination leads him to put up during the term with a convicted chicken thief. If it suit the Judge it should suit the bar.

At night, we attended a tableaux, gotten up by the ladies for the benefit of the church. It was all it should have been, the music good, the ladies pretty, and those in attendance delighted. A young friend promised a full account of the tableaux for the Sentinel or we would say more. One scene we thought "disloyal," and Judge Reade should have the militia or detectives called out to suppress it. The Scene was the opening of the University under the new Constitution. A young man played the part of President Pool in examining a black negro for admission in the University. We fear that the Judge by writing that Legislative address and associating with Holden and members of the Penitentiary committee, has lost his influence among his people, and hence the disloyal sight we witnessed.

AFTER AWHILE.

The time will come when the world will know a vast deal more about the late war than it does now. Every day or two we hear or read something new. Quite recently we have seen an exposure of Seward, that did not surprise us; it did not surprise any one. The time was once when many people among the celestials professed to admire him, but that time has gone by forever. Here is a characteristic action of his. When the Confederate vessel Florida, was at Bahia, Brazil, it was captured whilst most of the crew were ashore. A previous promise had been given by one Collins, Commander of the U. S. steamer Wachusett that no violation of a neutral port should take place. When the Confederate cruiser had been captured it gave great offence.—Europe abused Uncle Sam for the act, and most justly. Brazil was found not to be powerless. She demanded reparation. An abject apology was made, but here lies especially the meanness and duplicity of Seward. The Florida was secretly destroyed, and Seward pretended, when he had ordered the destruction, that he would deliver it up but for that accident, but all he could do was to order a salute by way of apology, which was done by Commander Blake on board of the U. S. steamer Nipsic. These facts have been recently developed in Yankeedom. What next will be revealed? We await in much patience, feeling assured that the turn of the wheel of truth will bring some other unexplained mystery to light.

The negroes at Louisville, Campbell county, Virginia, celebrated the surrender of General Lee on Friday last. They had ropes stretched around the tables, and sentinels with loaded pistols to keep out intruders. One of the party, however, got over or crept under a rope, when a sentinel fired on and killed him. The negroes immediately took the murderer in charge, brought him to the court-house, and lodged him in jail.

Laborers, excavating a great mound in the northern part of St. Louis, unearthed a number of Indian graves, at a depth of twenty five feet, extending a distance of sixty feet in length. Large quantities of bones, beads, coins and other relics have been thrown out.

Vegetables in New York.—Green peas, shipped from Charleston, S. C., were sold in New York last Saturday at from $7 to $7.25 per bushel; and lettuce, from Savannah, sold for $5.50 per barrel.

A SOLEMN PROTEST OF THE BAR OF NORTH CAROLINA AGAINST JUDICIAL INTERFERENCE IN POLITICAL AFFAIRS.

The undersigned, present or former members of the bar of North Carolina, have witnessed the late public demonstrations of political partizanship, by the Judges of the Supreme Court of the State, with profound regret and unfeigned alarm for the purity of the future administration of the laws of the land.

Active and open participation in the strife of political contests by any judge of the State, so far as we recollect, or tradition or history has informed us, was unknown to the people until the late exhibitions. To say that these were wholly unexpected, and that a prediction of them, by the wisest amongst us, would have been counted as incredible, would not express half of our astonishment, or the painful shock suffered by our feelings when we saw the humiliating fact accomplished.

Not only did we not anticipate it, but we thought it was impossible to be done in our day. Many of us have passed through political times almost as excited as those of to-day; and most of us, recently, through one more excited; but never before, have we seen the Judges of the Supreme Court, singly or en masse, moved from that becoming propriety so indispensable to secure the respect of the people, and throwing aside the ermine, rush into the mad contest of politics under the excitement of drums and flags. From the unerring lessons of the past we are assured, that a judge who openly and publicly displays his political party zeal, renders himself unfit to hold the "balance of justice," and that whenever an occasion may offer to serve his fellow partizan, he will yield to the temptation and the "wavering balance" will shake.

It is a natural weakness in man, that he, who warmly and publicly identifies himself with a political party, will be tempted to uphold the party which upholds him, and all experience teaches us that a partizan judge cannot be safely trusted to settle the great principles of a political constitution, while he reads and studies the books of its laws under the banners of a party.

Unwilling that our silence should be construed into an indifference to the humiliating spectacle now passing around us; influenced solely by a spirit of love and veneration for the past purity, which has distinguished the administration of the law in our State, and animated by the hope that the voice of the bar of North Carolina will not be powerless to avert the pernicious example, which we have denounced, and to repress its contagious influence, we have under a sense of solemn duty subscribed an I published this paper:

Memphis Commercial Convention.—The following "Suggestions" have been sent to us by the Committee of Invitation.

To facilitate the deliberations of the Convention, the committee would respectfully suggest the following ratio of representation, to wit:

That the Governor of each State and Territory will appoint a delegation, not exceeding ten for the State at large, and one for each Congressional District.

That each city or town will appoint but two delegates for a population under five thousand, and one for each additional ten thousand.

That each incorporated railroad, steamboat, manufacturing or mining company will appoint but two delegates.

That each Chamber of Commerce or Board of Trade will appoint but one delegate for every one hundred members or fractional hundred.

Every one appointed or specially invited, will please notify the Committee if he can attend, and will bring with him some form of credential as a delegate.

The Convention is to meet on the 18th May. There are several objects in view.—One is to make an effort to build up direct trade with Europe. A second is, to discuss the necessity of a rail road from the Mississippi River to the Pacific Ocean. A third, to consider the leasing of the Mississippi to prevent its overflowing the most productive cotton lands in the world. A fourth, is to consider immigration. Will not some of our commercial men go?

A severe storm passed over Kittrell yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock. A box car was blown off the track, the tops from several corn cribs were blown off, and one or two houses were blown down.

Arthur Dupont, gymnast, while performing the double trapeze act with his brother on Wednesday night, at the Galetia Theatre, Columbus, Ohio, fell from the trapeze, a distance of nearly twenty feet. He was hanging head downward when he commenced to fall, but turned on his descent so as to alight on his hip. He struck on a piano was badly damaged, but Dupont jumped up and turned a hand-spring before he left the stage, to the surprise of the audience, who thought he was surely killed.

For the Sentinel.

Mr. Editor:—Attentive readers might gain much valuable information by carefully reading Macaulay's History of England.—The duplicity and treachery of some of the prominent actors during the progress of the revolution of 1688, remind us of some of our trustworthy mercenaries. When the religious prejudice of his Catholic Majesty, King James the 2nd, had developed itself in his proscriptive policy and rendered him odious, instead of learning wisdom from the past, and trying to correct the many evils of Catholic misrule, he sought a refuge from the tempest he had raised, under the wing of the French ruler. Wise statesmanship might have suggested to his mind the idea of national stability and harmony, based on the affections and support of the people. Wasp is the impenetrability of an incorrigible bigotry, he seemed callous to the intensifying feelings of bitterness that marked transpiring events around him, until his terror stricken soul was aroused amid the trembling ruins of his throne.

William, Prince of Orange, succeeded to the throne. The duplicity and baseness of insidious officials threw many obstacles in his way, in his efforts to remove the rubbish and impurities of James' mal administrative policy and restore confidence and harmony to a divided and distrustful people. Constant vigilance was requisite against the undermining treachery of men securing positions by protestations of love and fidelity for their King and their country. Like some of our crowing birds, their ardor cooled down too suddenly in the hour of danger. "These people," the King remarked to a friend one day, "that cry hosanna so loud to-day, would cry crucify him to-morrow." "The shortest way," he said, "to find out their wickedness, was to ascertain where the 'loaves and fishes' were." With natures as instinctively true to plunder as the olfactories of vultures for prey, the direction and eagerness of their eyes, even, amid the confusion and darkness of the mighty upheavings of kingdoms and empires indicated the rise and fall of the popular will with as much certainty as the elongation and contraction of a cat's eye indicated the ebb and flow of the tides.

Wonder if some of our "old originals" that moved heaven and earth to get up a fight and afterwards slunk from the contest, leaving their less pugnacious brethren to enjoy the "honors of the ball" they had inaugurated, while they plundered the country, are not the descendants of those trouble some fellows that bothered King William so much? In some respects there really seems to be a very striking resemblance. In fact, so very strikingly is the family likeness depicted in the mercenary grins and smelling attitude of their upturned noses while trying to secure the confidence and assistance of radical officials in their schemes of plunder, that a disciple of Pythagoras might very easily imagine much in their characteristic fixtures to strengthen his belief in the doctrine of a transmigration of souls. He might, however, be perplexed to account for the perfidious blackness manifested in the insatiable propensities of some destructives, (regardless of the opinions or injuries of others,) unless his faith embraced the idea that transmigrating souls partake largely of the nature of the reptiles or beasts through which they pass.

TYRO.

In November last, four members were elected to Congress in South Carolina—two Radicals and two Democrats. As a matter of course, the former have been admitted and, equally as a matter of course, the latter excluded. On the 16th instant, the excluded gentlemen had a prolonged interview with Mr. Grant, who listened carefully to their representations, and then said: "Gentlemen, the disclosures you make ought to be known and understood and considered by every Union man and woman in the country." Coming from so reticent and unimpressible a man, this declaration bears a powerful testimony to the enormity of this great and stupid wickedness, negro reconstruction.

The full devilry of the scheme, its wide-branching evils and most perilous consequences to the whole country through the medium of one portion of it, were probably not known even to its authors at the time of its inception, and we are charitable enough to believe that even now they do not fully appreciate the nature of what they do. But little by little the tints stand out, here a line and there a line, and in time, we doubt not, the entire picture will be bodied forth to an all but universal contempt and ignominy.

To take the most favored portion of the known earth, the real and ultimate basis of that enormous prosperity which has built up in less than a century a few feeble colonies into a more than Roman republic; to upset in that country at one swoop every lesson of history, every dictate of nature, every political and economic tradition of the English speaking race; to wrench ignorance, pauperism, hereditary, serfdom, above intelligence, property, and hereditary freedom; to call this by a fine name, and expect it to be and remain both stable and consonant with the welfare of the republic, this is reconstruction. No wonder that, when the President was brought to a close inspection of its nature, he could but exclaim, "Gentlemen, the disclosures you make ought to be known and understood and considered by every Union man and woman in the country!"—N. Y. World.

Monsieur Richotte, of Marseilles, passed through here yesterday, with six laborers, on the way to Louisiana, where he proposes to establish a large olive grove. He has with him the seed and also a large number of cuttings hermetically sealed in metallic cans. The experiment was tried once before in Alabama, under the patronage of Congress, but without success.—Washington Chronicle.

The Latest in Velocipedes.—An ingenious individual has laid before Professor Morse, the electrician, a plan for sending velocipedes over wires by electricity. He proposes that the wheels shall run on wires, one above and one below the tires being grooved. He thinks that they can be used for carrying the mail, and even goes so far as to propose to send a man from New York to New Orleans in an hour and a half.

Norfolk, April 16.—A fire last night on the southwest corner of Water and Commerce streets destroyed four buildings, occupied by a wholesale grocery store and several commission houses—loss $10,000, which is fully covered by insurance in the Maryland National Company, of Baltimore the Home, of New Haven, and the Atlantic, of New York. The buildings are believed to have been fired by an incendiary.

The Senate will not adjourn to-day.—They have still a large number of nominations to act on, and it is not likely they will adjourn before Wednesday next.

A colored Henry Ward Beecher steals chairs in St. Joseph, Mo. Give a colored boy a bad name, and he will earn it.

Tauchnitz clears annually between forty and fifty thousand dollars on his famous reprints of English and American authors.—The only American author whom he ever paid anything for republishing his works is Longfellow.

One of the candidates lately confirmed by Bishop Stevens of Trinity Church, Philadelphia, was 94 years of age.

THE ATTEMPT AT ASSASSINATION.

You and your readers have of course heard of the attack upon the Editor of the Sentinel at the North Carolina Railroad depot in this place, by the Speaker of the Lower House of the Legislature and others, members of the government, as well as private individuals. This attack, however, was neither passionate, nor bold, nor daring, nor outbreaking, nor very persistently fierce, though made in public. The worst feature in it was that the Governor of the State should in the Court of Justice, in the presence of, and in defiance of, the Magistrate upon the Bench, declare his previous knowledge of the attack, and his subsequent approval of all that had been done. And yet the Governor was neither punished for contempt of Court or bound over to appear at Court for trial as a party to a breach of the peace of the State he had sworn to preserve. But the Governor was a brother-in-law to the Magistrate and probably knew how little danger there was that the Magistrate would uphold the dignity of the bench by punishing him for contempt of Court. Will the Grand Jury do its duty and indict the Governor and his son as well as Mr. Turner?

Your readers know also that not many nights after the attack at the depot, a would be assassin stole stealthily to Mr. Turner's window and attempted to murder him, and failed only because the ball was deflected from its course by the pane of glass and the shutter-stay through which it passed. It is too infamous a crime to charge upon any man, no matter whether carpet bagger or scalawag, therefore I do not charge that the instigators and actors in these two attacks were the same individuals. It is, however, a great misfortune for the instigators of the first attack that the second followed so soon thereafter.—What a spectacle for a man who loves his country, and yet, from what we learn, His Honor, Judge Watts, within a stone's throw from whose court, that week in session, the murder and assassination was attempted, did not deem it a matter of sufficient importance to call to the attention of the grand jury!

To a thinking man this midnight attempt to take the life of an enemy, as it were under the eye of the court, in the presence of the Legislature, in the face of the Executive, and, so far as it appears, made with impunity, affords food for most painful reflections, just cause for most painful apprehensions. Governments are instituted for the protection, and so failing, remit the citizen to his right, by the law of nature, to protect himself. If the government, through the officers thereof, is unable or unwilling to protect individuals from the violence of bands of armed men, by punishing the offenders with proper severity and sufficient certainty—if, through its weakness, inefficiency, or other cause, men in their own houses are not safe from the ball of the midnight assassin; if the condition of the country be such that a man dare not show a light in his own house, lest it may afford some lurking enemy the opportunity to direct a ball to his heart, it may be properly said that the government fails in accomplishing the purpose for which it was created, and that the time has come when self defence, the law of God and of Nature, justifies the citizen in taking back into his own hands the protection of himself, his family and his property.

It is enough to make ones heart sick to contemplate the result of such a state of affairs. I sincerely trust the day may never come when the necessity for us to take our protection into our own hands shall arise.

Herein lies the trouble. In such times it is impossible to control men or to prevent them from committing acts of unnecessary violence, for when "blood is up" reason and judgment are in the back ground.—Violence, produces violence as like begets like. Had Mr. Turner been killed in either of the attacks made upon him, it would doubtless have been the beginning only of blood shedding, the first mouthful only that the greedy earth would have drunk up. The Governor, who had foreknowledge of the day attack and who afterwards publicly approved of it, and publicly in open court justified a band of armed men in attacking one individual, and the member of the Legislature, who, before the night attack, said the man who would shoot Mr. Turner in the back would be, or ought to be, pardoned, would doubtless have held their lives by a very slender thread. The men of this State are not yet sunk to the level of dogs, and it is well enough for some people to know it.—Raleigh Correspondent of the Wilmington Journal.

A Puff Extraordinary.—A cigar seven feet long and thirty pounds in weight has been manufactured at New Haven, in the United States. It is proposed to present this New Haven-nah to Gen. Grant—but it is hard to see why the President should be the victim of such an unprecedented weed. If his Presidency commences with an attempt to blow this portentous bacca we fear it is likely to end, as well as begin in smoke.

SUNDAY.—Rev. J. H. Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Greensboro', preached to a large congregation, in the Baptist Church, at 11 o'clock, A. M., from Acts 15-24. His subject was the "Judgment to Come," the last head of the Apostle Paul's discourse before Felix. He considered two points:

1. The Fact of a Judgment;—what the Bible says.

2 What is involved in the Scripture doctrine,—the nature and extent of man's accountability according to the Word of God.

It was a masterly sermon—compact, solid, vigorous argumentative and uncommonly earnest. It was a consummate discussion of a manly theme. His expositions,—running interpretations of many scriptural passages used in the course of his discourse, are exceedingly happy and impressive.

In the afternoon, the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian Sunday Schools met in the Presbyterian Church, at 4 o'clock. The singing was good, and serious and sensible addresses were made by Rev. Messrs. Dalton and Johnston. The latter stated, that he was born and raised in Turkey, his father having been a missionary to that country. Our old friend, Rev. Thos U. Faucette, made characteristically humorous and happy talk to the children.

Several highly respected ministers of the Wake Presbytery occupied the pulpits of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist Churches, during the day, but we are only able to report as above.

The height of fashion.—Ladies' hair as pow wers.

MR. ARGO'S SPEECH.—We make some corrections in this gentleman's speech.—The errors originated mainly in the difficulty of deciphering his chirography. We have referred to the manuscript and find some of the errors are his.

For "dictated," read "dictate." For "doubtlessly," read "doubtless." For "professional," read "professorial;" for "the party" read "one party;" for "sirs," read "sir;" for "had sent forth" read "has, &c.;" in "after the earnest," omit "the;" for "with vacillate," read "will, &c.;" for "in highest branches," read "in the, &c;" for "already to be remembered," read "always, &c.;" for "Union" read "University." Error in copy. Here is a passage corrected. "If the State is to dispense its bounty in aid of education, let it be conferred in such manner that good will result."

In the sentence beginning "Hundreds at least," read on to "meanwhile sustain it" without any "periods" being inserted—read as one sentence. The printer here, as elsewhere, followed copy, so the error is not his. For "under circumstances," read "unless, &c.;" for "conduced to render," read "concurred, &c.;" for "command" read "commend;" for "after influences," read "other influences."

MERCHANTS INDEPENDENT FIRE CO. You are hereby notified to meet at the Engine House on Tuesday evening at 7½ o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

By order of
J. C. BREWSTER, Foreman,
JUNIUS FERRELL, Secretary.

THE STAY LAW TO BE TESTED.—In a case lately tried in Scotland Neck, in this county, in the Magistrate's Court, the Act of Assembly of March 18th, 1869, commonly known as the "Magistrate's Stay Law," was pronounced by Mr. Penner, the presiding Justice, to be unconstitutional and without force or effect. The Defendant, we learn, has appealed to the Superior Court, and the matter will be heard at May term. Whatever may be the decision of his Honor, Judge Watts, the case will probably go up to the Supreme Court at the June term, when we can probably have this vext question set at rest.

In the case in question, Colonel Walter Clark, for the plaintiff, argued the unconstitutionality of the law.—Roanoke News.

THE HALIFAX, EDGECOMBE HORSE CASE AGAIN.—The Spiers Farrar contested horse case, to which we have alluded several times, has been ended by the pony in question being shaved upon his shoulder and the letter "M" discovered there instead of "E. D." as Mr. Farrar contended. The gentleman now, we understand, gives up the question, and resigns any claim to the horse. How about the $1,000 banter he made and was accepted by us for a "third party?" Aye, Mr. Farrar, you have lost it fairly, and should "pony" it up.—Roanoke News.

On Friday night last, the residence of J. W. Kirkman, residing six miles North of Greensboro, was robbed, of some $50 in specie and $418 in in greenbacks—one one hundred dollar bill. The family were sleeping in the room at the time and did not find it out until morning. Mr. Kirkman will give a reward of $50 for detection of the thief and the recovery of the money.

THE BANK OF GREENSBORO.—This, says the Topic, is the title of a new BANK lately opened in Greensboro, by Messrs. Jesse H Lindsay, Julius A. Gray and Eugene Morehead, gentleman of undoubted integrity and financial ability.

The Ashville News states that several colored families from Burke county, numbering twenty five or thirty persons, passed by Asheville on Monday last, on their way to Kansas.

MAN KILLED—THE BODY HORRIBLY MANGLED.—Yesterday evening one of the passengur trains on the W. & W. Railroad ran over a colored section hand, who was immediately killed, his body being horribly mangled. The accident occurred about midway below Rocky Point and Burgaw, and was the result of the man's own rashness, or more correctly, partial insanity.—Wil. Star.

The Standard says the Democratic papers of the State are "still slandering good men." All we've got to say is, the Standard can't select good qualities for us. We had rather "starve on hate" than live on the prize of dishonor.—Roanoke News.

Billy Smith, President of the N. C. R. Road, may be this and may be that, but in the name of a tax ridden and oppressed people, we thank him for adjourning our Legislature, and he deserves a monument to his name as imperishable as brass. The probability is the Legislature would never have adjourned if the President of this Road had not offered the members a free ride home, provided they would adjourn and go home by the 13th inst., which they did. Let us return thanks.—Milton Chron.

EMIGRATING.—A party of gentlemen left the town of Beaufort on Wednesday morning for the State of Illinois, where they go prospecting, with a view to emigrating with their families.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

BURNING OF MADISON, GEORGIA.

[From the Augusta Chronicle.]

On last Thursday night, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Beckwith, the Episcopal Bishop of the Diocese of Georgia, preached in the Methodist church of Madison to an unusually large and attentive audience, and at the close of his discourse administered the rite of confirmation to a class of converts. Scarcely had this been done and the congregation dismissed, when the cry of "fire" was heard, and in a very short time the beautiful little town was in ashes. The fire originated in a large wooden building and store house occupied by Mr. J. C. Brougham, and situated on the western side of the public square. It is not known how it was first started, but is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. This building soon became enveloped in flames, and all efforts made to save it proved unavailing.

From this point the flames spread to the stores situated on each side of the one first named, and the conflagration became general. The business portion of Madison, being nearly all the county towns of a similar size in the State, is built in the shape of a hollow square, in the centre of which stood the court-house, and lining the four sides were nearly all the stores which the town contained. The store of Mr. Brougham was situated, we believe, almost in the very heart of the town, and it will readily be perceived by the reader that when it became found impossible to quell the flames at that point, in what imminent danger all the other business houses were placed.

Accordingly, the fiery monster soon gained possession of the stores adjoining, nearly all of which were wooden buildings of a highly combustible nature, and the fate of Madison was sealed. Although the first alarm given had the effect of summoning to the spot the entire male population of the place to the scene of danger, yet having no fire department to aid them, and no other means for extinguishing the flames, their efforts, though described as almost superhuman, were without avail, and the fire steadily and with great rapidity advanced on march of destruction.

One after store succumbed to the destroyer, and ere one was half consumed the cried the spectators announced that another one was ignited. The scene at this time is described as fearful as beyond description. The square was filled with anxious men, women and children, who, surmuddenly out of their homes, stood and witnessed the destruction of their property and yet were utterly powerless to prevent it. The cracking of the flames, the fall of the burning timbers, the pillars fire shooting high towards the heavens and shedding its lurid light on the dead below of unnerved men and screaming females, combined to form a picture to be horrors of which can never be effaced from the minds of the spectators.

Breaking out of the fire was so sudden, the conflagration progressed with such greatidity, that scarcely anything was saved in the different houses, and what was taken away was principally furniture, which injured so much in the removal as to be of but little service. The flames are destroying twenty nine stores (every in the town except one,) comprising several dry goods and grocery stores, two or three drug stores, two carriage manufactories, two billiard saloons and five bar rooms, together with the Post Office, the Farm Journal, and a large number private residences, were finally subdued more from a want of something to prey than from any other cause.

The Court house and hotel were fortunately escaped a loss sustained is impossible as yet to state correctly, but in everywhere conceded have been immense. The worst loss of the whole business is that during fire nearly every pound of provisions in town was consumed; what escaped wholly insufficient to supply the want of people, and they are said to be actually suffering for bread.

The bill restoring Blanton Duncan's property which passed during the last hours of the session failed.

It is stated that old letters expressing Duncan's devotion to the Southern cause, caused the withholding of the executive signature.

A delegation of congress preachers is in conference here. They called on President Grant who said he would endeavor to so administer the laws as to have peace at home and abroad and to do justice to all races and colors, and if he failed it would not be from any want of good intention on his part.

The discussion in the Senate to-day indicates adjournment about the middle of next week.

A special Washington dispatch to the New York World says a called session of Congress will be held within thirty days to consider the Cuba question. This announcement is made upon the authority of one of the Senators from California.

The New York Daily News prints an extra with this dispatch:

Boston, April 17.—Orders were received yesterday from the Navy Department directing all war vessels at Portsmouth and Charlestown navy yards to be got in readiness for immediate active service.

MURDER IN GEORGIA.

SAVANNAH, April 17.—Dr. Benjamin Ayer member of the Georgia Legislature from Jefferson county was shot on Friday morning dead, lying by the roadside near Louisville, Ga. He was shot between the eyes.

The Advertiser publishes to-morrow a special letter from Ingino Cuba dated the 7th announcing the arrival of three expeditions from Florida and a union of the volunteer and patriotic forces which are increasing daily. It says Spanish troops are deserting.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, April 17.—The Irish Church bill was debated in Committee.

D'Israeli moved to strike out the following clause: 'After first day of January 1871 said union, created by act of Parliament between the churches of England and Ireland shall be dissolved, and said church of Ireland cease to be established by law."

The motion failed—224 to 344.

Tremendous cheers by the Liberals.

Monday Evening Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 19 M.—Packard has been confirmed Marshal of Louisiana. The President has no idea of calling an extra session of Congress relative to Cuban affairs. The government has no official information relative to expeditions in aid of Cuban revolutionists. Plumbs instructions not yet prepared. He has given no grounds for reward rumors about what he intends to do when he reaches Cuba as U. S. Consul-General, further than that most official information recently received from U. S. civil and naval officers in Cuban and adjacent waters agrees that the revolution is diminishing in importance and a compromise may be effected. Recent rumors are of Cuban manufacture in aid of revolutionists.

Chandler offered a resolution requesting the President to open negotiations for the settlement of matters in dispute between England, and the United States on the basis of surrender of British North American possessions, and is making a long speech.

FROM SAN FANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Surprise is expressed at indiscriminate change of Federal officers. The removal of J. Ross Brown from China mission regretted.

READ WHAT THE
HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIHU WASHBURN.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

WASHING COMPOUND.

Patented Sept. 22, 1868.

REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS SOAP.

The Patentee claims for this Soap the following advantages which are clearly set forth in the Letters Patent, to-wit:

First, it can be manufactured at less than half the cost of any soap ever produced.

Secondly, it may be used successfully in any kind of water—cold or hot, hard or soft.

Thirdly, it so modifies the action of boiling water on woollen goods that their fibres do not contract under the influence, and your woollen garments is as large after boiling as before.

Fourth, it does not decompose the colors of goods, and your prints and stripes are as brilliant after washing as before.

Fifth the goods do not require any rubbing or patent washing machine—all that is necessary is a few minutes boiling and a good rinsing.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so muddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He cannot comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he runs into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL-CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

$1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,520.00
Total Premiums,	230,117.69

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892
By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 691
" New England Mutual, 343
" Phœnix Mutual, 835
" Massachusetts Mutual, 313
" Equitable of New York, 277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.
In its 10th year, 1,260 "
And in its 20th year, 2,842 " this latter being 930 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

PUBLISHED AT THE

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who get themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any house, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blankets. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pounding.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and cleansing the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dreaded by housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be computed in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approbation.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOGGIE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State
